Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(B), the United States and the defendant, JOLEIGH CABANAYAN, enter into the following plea agreement:

- 1. The defendant, JOLEIGH CABANAYAN agrees to enter a guilty plea to an Information charging her with Theft of Government Property, in violation of Title18, United States Code, Section 641.
- 2. The defendant understands that the maximum sentence for Theft of Government Property in an amount less than $1,000, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 641, as a Class A misdemeanor as specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3559, is imprisonment for not more than one year and a maximum fine of $100,000.00, together with any restitution as the court may order, and a $25 special assessment fee as set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3013. Any sentence of incarceration may include a term of supervised release of not more than one year as set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(b)(3). If the court revokes a sentence of supervised release, the court may incarcerate the Defendant up to an additional term of not more than one year. The $25 special assessment fee must be paid upon sentencing. The government will recommend that defendant receive the low end of the sentencing guidelines, a fine, and credit for time served, if any.

If defendant is financially unable to immediately pay the fine in full, defendant agrees to make a full disclosure of her financial status to the United States Attorney's Office by completing a Financial Disclosure Form (OBD-500) for purposes of fixing a monthly payment schedule.

Defendant understands that, by law, interest accrues on any remaining balance of the debt.

3. The defendant understands that to establish a violation of Theft of Government Property, in violation of Title18, United States Code, Section 641, the government must prove each of the following elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant knowingly and willingly stole property with the intention of depriving the owner of the use or benefit of the property;

Second, the property belonged to the United States; and Third, the value of the property was less than $1000.00.

- 4. The defendant understands that the Sentencing Guidelines are advisory only. The Court may still utilize the sentencing guidelines as an aid to determine the sentence to be imposed. The government and the Defendant stipulate to the following facts for purposes of the sentencing:
 - a. The defendant was born in 1986, and is a citizen of the United States.
- b. That on or about September 7, 2006, in the District of Guam, the defendant, JOLEIGH CABANAYAN, willfully and knowingly, did steal and purloin United States property from the *See helow That property from the Navy Exchange, Guam, is property of the United States. That the value of the property stolen and purloined from the Navy Exchange, Guam, was of the value of $303.82. That the property from the Navy Exchange, Guam, had come into the possession of the defendant, JOLEIGH CABANAYAN, by virtue of her concealing the merchandise and exiting the Navy Exchange, Guam.

*That on or about September 7, 2006, in the District of Guam, the defendant,

JOLIEGH CABANAYAN, willfully and knowingly, did steal and purloin United States

property from the Navy Exchange, Guam, with the intention of depriving the United States of the use or benefit of the property.

- 5. The defendant understands that notwithstanding any agreement of the parties, the United States Probation Office will make an independent application of the Sentencing Guidelines or determine an appropriate sentencing range. The defendant acknowledges that should there be discrepancies in the final Sentencing Guidelines or sentencing range, projected by her counsel or any other person, such discrepancy is not a basis to withdraw her guilty plea.
- 6. The defendant agrees to waive any right to appeal or to collaterally attack her conviction. The defendant reserves the right to appeal the sentence actually imposed in her case.
- 7. The defendant acknowledges that she has been advised of her rights as set forth below prior to entering into her plea agreement. Specifically, defendant has been fully advised of, has had sufficient opportunity to reflect upon, and understands the following:
- a. The nature and elements of the charge and the mandatory minimum penalty provided by law, if any, and the maximum possible penalty provided by law;
 - b. Her right to be represented by an attorney;
- c. Her right to plead not guilty and the right to be tried by a jury and at that trial, the right to be represented by counsel, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against her, and the right not to be compelled to incriminate herself, that is, the right not to testify;
- d. That if she pleads guilty, there will not be a further trial of any kind on the charges to which such plea is entered so that by entering into the plea agreement, she waives, that is, gives up, the right to a trial;
- e. That, upon entry of a plea of guilty, or thereafter, the Court may ask her questions about the offenses to which she has pled, under oath, and that if she answers these questions under oath, on the record, her answers may later be used against her in a prosecution for perjury or false statement if an answer is untrue;
- f. That she agrees that the plea agreement is voluntary and not a result of any force, threats or promises apart from her plea agreement;
